BRIEF ABSTRACT OF LETTER

States that the amount of Scholarship viz Rs 100 p.m sanctioned in G O No 7809-10 Ed 267-11-33 24 4 12 to Mr Ganulapun Sastri appears to be high in view of the fact that the place of study is within the State and suggests a reconsideration of the order and reduction in the amount with them the State should not make any difference. The Comptroller's letter would make it appear that there would be no objection to the large amount of the scholarship if the Institute were located anywhere outside the State, though in India. The force of this argument is not clear. But apart from this the necessity of the large amount of scholarship appears to be a fenelas matter for consideration. Sd 14/5/12

3 The real question is what would be the ordinary expenses of a student, & whether the Govt scholarship should cover the whole of such expenditure or only a part.

4 From the Calendar issued by the Institute, a charge of 10 Rs p.m. is made for lodging & the messing charges are estimated at 15 Rs p.m. (vide p 42 & 47) The Institute possesses a very full library & books of the value of 100 or 200 Rs† per the whole Course would perhaps be enough.

5 All things included an allowance of 50 Rs p.m. should be ample for a student even if for the Govt is to cover the whole cost.

A scholarship of 100 Rs p.m. for † the student has been presented with 200 Rs worth of books already

NOTE—Contn sheet

Submitted to His Highness

In connection with Government Order No 7809-1c/Edn 267-11-3 dated 24th April 1912 sanctioning a Damodar Dass scholarship of Rs 100 per mensem, tenable for 3 years to Mr Garalapuri Shastry to study Organic Chemistry in the Indian Institute of Science, Bangalore, I the Comptroller pointed out in his letter No 6735 dated 8th May, that for a scholar at Bangalore Rs 100 per mensem was excessive, and solicited Government to reconsider their orders and reduce the amount of scholarship to what is necessary for the scholar to meet such charges as are incidental to his study

2 The Comptroller was informed that Government were not prepared to revise the order passed in the case of Mr Garalapuri Shastry as he had virtually a promise on the subject Government took up separately for consideration the question of revising and improving the Damodar Dass scholarship Rules on this point, in future cases

3 Rule VIII of the Rules published by Notification No 7540/Edn 300-09-1 dated 28th February 1910 for regulating the grant of these scholarships at present present allows to each candidate in addition to his travelling expenses to and fro -

(i) a sum of £200 per annum in the case of Institutions in England or elsewhere outside India and (ii) a sum of Rs 100 per mensem in the case of Institutions in India or Japan

4 The First Councillor was of opinion that the object would be served by substituting the words 'not exceed" for the word "be" in the last line of Rule VIII

If the institution selected by Government for the prosecution by the candidate of his study or research is in India or Japan, the allowance will not exceed Rs 100 per mensem

The last sentence in rule thus amended would read as noted in the margin

5 The Financial Secretary agreed with the First Councillor and added "only, I would have 'not exceeding £200' for 'of £200' in line 4 of Rule VIII" (i e in the case of scholarships for Institutions outside India)

6 This having been further referred to the First Councillor, he thought, after obtaining information about the sufficiency or otherwise of this amount, that the sum of £200 tenable under the Rules could not well be reduced and that therefore the Pule might stand as it is in this respect

7 When the papers came up before me, I agreed with the First Councillor in the proposal to substitute

the words "will not exceed" for the words "will be" in the last line of Rule VIII, though I preferred that a definite amount be fixed once for all if only to save perpetual discussion I was for fixing the amount at Rs 50 per mensem for India and Rs 100 for Japan I further agreed that the rate of £200 for other parts of the world could not be reduced and with these remarks the papers were referred to the Council

8 The Second Councillor has agreed with me and stated that the amount may be fixed at Rs 50 per mensem in India, Rs 100 per mensem in Japan and £200 per annum elsewhere

9 The First Councillor who was further consulted thinks it better to keep the thing elastic, but if the limitation noted by me is to be made he sees no serious objection

10 I submit the papers for orders My opinion has already been stated at the end of para 7 above
